October 7, 2023

Dear Students, Parents and Fans,

On behalf of Carolina Crown, I would like to welcome you to the 16th Annual BandBEAT Marching Band Championship presented by the Yamaha Corporation of America and Carolina Crown! This year's event is brought to you through a Carolina Crown Partnership in Education with the Catawba Ridge High School Band Boosters, who are providing logistical support for today's event. We are very happy that you decided to share your day with us!

Hundreds of hours of hard work have taken place by scores of volunteers in an attempt to make BandBEAT the best event you will attend this season. But the real work was done by the thousands of performers over the past several months in their quest to entertain you today! Please join me in cheering for every single one of them!

Have a great show, and be sure to come back for BandBEAT 2024, as well as NightBEAT at Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, NC next July!

Sincerely,

Cody Crawford
CFOO, Carolina Crown, Inc.

In the grand tapestry of nature, life and water share an undeniable, intimate connection. Both are fluid and ever-changing. The journey of life is much like the journey of water - a stream flowing through time and space, shape-shifting, overcoming obstacles, and persistently moving towards a destination. "Where the Current Takes You" will ultimately depend on our choice to take the path of least resistance, or choosing the path that leads upstream.

Storms begin to swell as the Marching Mavs take the field with their 2023 contest show: Wintertide. First, we'll hear "Troika," where our senses will be heightened and the air becomes crisp with anticipation as we await the first snowfall. Next comes the "Magic Hour," when senior, Ryan Molina, will step into the spotlight as a featured soloist, evoking images of longing and shivered distances. Wintertide roars on, reaching its climax with the dramatically furious and frantic "Blizzard." And finally, as the storm subsides, "The Hope of Spring" is ushered in, featuring senior Tyler Best on clarinet. The cycle is complete. Frosts and icicles have melted, and the warmth of new beginnings await.

And now, the Marching Mavs proudly present....Wintertide.
